

For People and Planet: Not Profit and Self-Destruction
Can Universities make the move towards, or even lead 'transition'?

West Downs Centre, Winchester
February 5-6 2011

Programme

This is now close to a full programme but we anticipate some last minute changes! All main sessions bar open space, small group discussion and research drama in the main hall.

Saturday 5 February: Articulating the Challenge

Time	Session	Contributors	Alternative group
9.45 - 10.30	Registration
10.30 - 10.45	Welcome, Introduction Room 1 (Main hall)	Joy Carter (Winchester VC) Followed by Mark Levene, for organisers.
10.45 - 11.15	Mapping the weekend: the purpose of this session is to a) show the range of geographies, attitudes, ages of participants b)to get them talking to each other	Ben Brangwyn (Transition Towns)
11.15 - 12.00	Panel: What's the matter with UK universities plc? Is what universities are facing simply more of what has been 'wrong for a long time' but now in an age of post-Browne austerity and marketisation. Or do we need to factor in the big issues, not least peak oil and climate change? If so, how grim is the UK university future likely to be based on 'business as usual' ?	To include: John Rayment, Jonathan Ward, Dougald Hine, Nick Stewart, Nick Maxwell. Facilitator: Mary Tiles (Winchester)
12.00 - 12.15	Break for tea/coffee
12.15 - 1.05	Panel: news from around the universities. Focus: energy descent, Sub-text, renewables, feed-in	Mat Jane (Winchester University Carbon Reduction Officer), Jonathan Ward and Nick Goodman (Student Force

	tariffs, positive research	for Sustainability) Facilitator, Anton Page (Southampton)
1.05 - 2.00	Lunch Link Gallery		1.30 - 2.00 Craig Duckworth, Exploring Climate Ethics through Research Drama. Upper Link Gallery
2.00 - 2.30	Keynote: What can universities learn from the transition towns experience?	Ben Brangwyn
2.30 - 3.30	Panel: news from around the universities. Focus: curricula for an age of transition	Heather Luna (HEA Education for Sustainable Development) Beatriz Acevedo, Isabel Carlisle, Colin Richmond, Simon Boxley, Mary Tiles, Facilitator: Chris Shaw (Sussex)
3.30 - 3.40	Break for tea/coffee
3.40- 5.00	Open space: An opportunity for university transition activists or anybody else to offer an open space on how we might be changing the goalposts Rooms 1/3/5/6	Louise Hazan and Alice Hemming (People and Planet) Isabel (Embercombe) Jonathan Ward(Student Force for Sustainability) Joss Winn http://www.universityofutopia.org/critical-theory Imogen Michel (NVDA training) Beatriz Acevedo (case study: student action at Anglia Ruskin) Daniel, (Catalyst) Alice O'Rourke, Olga Bloemen, (Grassroots Climate Exchange) Rhett Gayle, (Creating an Alternative Higher Education Institute). Facilitator: Simon Boxley

5.00 - 5.30	Open Plenary session: Review of the day: signposting for tomorrow What is it that we're trying to achieve?	Facilitators: Simon Boxley with assistance from Mark Levene, Mary Tiles (matrix of conference so far) et al.
Evening	'Railway Inn' upstairs, acoustic lounge, for anybody who would like to join us.

Sunday 6 February: Meeting the Challenge

Time	Session	Participants	Alternative group
10.15 - 10.35	Taking Southampton University towards transition: video and presentation	Grace, Ella, Dax and Alex (Southampton undergraduates)
10.35 - 11.25	Panel: Step changes 1: Food, food miles and community gardens	Myles Bremner (Garden Organic) Elona Hoover (Brighton Unis' and community food), Megan Streb (Soton TT) Ria Jackson, George Legg, (Food Kitchen project), Facilitator: Dave McKay (Green Action, Soton)
11.25 - 11.35	Break for tea/coffee
11.35 - 12.25	Panel: Step changes 2: Community Inspirations	Arran Stibbe (Gloucester) Ian and Dai, (Transition Heathrow) Neil Jennings (Student Switch Off) Carole Whitty (Totnes TT) Alice O'Rourke, Olga Bloemen (TBC) Facilitator: Barbara Large (Winchester)

12.25 - 1.00	Keynote: 'The Edges & The Centre' What can we learn from past examples of the adoption or diffusion of new institutional models, particularly in moments of disruption? And how do we open lines of communication with those operating inside of Whitehall and the policy world?	Dougald Hine (Dark Mountain)
1.00 - 2.00	Lunch Link Gallery		Alice O'Rourke, Olga Bloemen, Grassroots Climate Exchange, video. Main hall
2.00 - 2.45	Small group discussions: In a constrained financial environment and general age of austerity how can we innovate towards university transition?: Are we attempting to find ways of working with the university administrations we have, or subverting them? Or of reaching out to something completely different for an age of transition? Rooms 1/3/5/6	Four groups based on curricula, food, energy descent and community-action panels. Facilitator: Simon Boxley
2.45 - 3.00	Break for tea/coffee
3.00 - 4.00	Open plenary: Putting together an action plan for a nationwide university transition network The course of the weekend will determine what outcomes are appropriate: should we be reaching towards a manifesto of our goals, setting up a university transition network, or simply sharing ideas and practice on a dedicated website? Or something entirely different.	Plenary session group Facilitator, Ben Branwyn et al.

